THE CONSPIRACY NUT

Chemtrail Charlie

YOU ARE NOT THE MURDERER

Pronouns: they/them, or whatever suits your take on the character

READ ALOUD IN PART 1 · THIS IS THE ONLY PART YOU READ OUT

"Chemtrail Charlie. Wake up, people. I'm not saying the government is putting something in the casino air conditioning. I'm just asking questions. Has anyone here had the vaccine? I'll pray for you."

WHAT EVERYONE ELSE HAS HEARD ABOUT YOU

They think 5G spreads covid and they're definitely going to tell you about it. Everyone knows their head isn't screwed on quite right, but could they go off the rails enough to kill someone...

Your story (these are truths, so you can't lie about them)

You believe in aliens and UFOs, you think the moon landing was faked and chemtrails are real, and you're an anti-vaxxer because you're convinced 5G spreads covid.

You love musicals because you think aliens tell us about their alternate timelines through song and dance. Your favourite is The Phantom of the Opera.

Secretly, you're a small-time drug dealer. You sell ivermectin at the casino bar, and Dakota Calibre is your best customer.

RELATIONSHIP STATUS

Single. Relationships are how they track you.

BEEN TO EL CAMINO ROYALE BEFORE?

Every Friday. The casino bar is where you do business.

STARTING ROOM

The Bar

Who you know

- Sells ivermectin to Dakota Calibre, their BFF

Costume & Zoom background

A tinfoil hat, a "THE TRUTH IS OUT THERE" shirt, binoculars. A background covered in string and pinned clippings.

Keep this pack to yourself until the night. Change your Zoom name to Chemtrail Charlie when you arrive.

Your clues

You have to reveal all of these by the end of Part 4. Choose when and to whom, and be strategic.

- You're convinced the Phantom of the Opera was hiding in the shadows, came out to kill, then vanished behind the stage curtain into their lair. (You definitely saw something flutter behind the curtain.)
- When the gun went off, you were in the front row next to Dakota Calibre, filming the show to catch alien signals.

WHEN THE GUN GOES OFF Your alibi	Front row, next to Dakota Calibre.
PART 2 · PRE-SHOW DRINKS Mission 1	Ask Lou-Ann Hashbrown how business is going. Convince them their problems are mostly caused by aliens and the Democratic paedophile cabal.
PART 4 · THE INVESTIGATION Mission 2	Let your wacky theories guide your questions. Talk to anyone in show business.

Quick rules

- Truths: you can't lie about anything in this pack. You can dodge, but if someone pushes, you have to answer, and only as much as they asked.
- Everything else: lie, improvise and embellish as much as you like.
- "Did you do it?" Anyone can lie about that one.
- Moving rooms: send the hosts a private Zoom chat message with the room you want.
- If your mission names someone who isn't playing tonight, ask anyone else instead.
