THE REPUBLICAN GUN NUT

Dakota Calibre

Pronouns: they/them, or whatever suits your take on the character

YOU ARE NOT THE MURDERER

READ ALOUD IN PART 1 · THIS IS THE ONLY PART YOU READ OUT

"Name's Dakota Calibre. My spouse and I have been Elvis fans since before most of you were born, and I've seen this so-called King more times than I'd like. Somebody's gotta heckle them. Might as well be me."

WHAT EVERYONE ELSE HAS HEARD ABOUT YOU

Voted Trump in 2020, and that tells you everything you need to know about them.

Your story (these are truths, so you can't lie about them)

You own several guns. You and your spouse are die-hard Elvis fans, and you think this Elvis impersonator is terrible because you've seen them before. You've been to several of Rex's shows and you heckle them on and off stage.

Your gun collection is suss. You've got everything from police-issue Glocks to AK-47s. Tonight you're unarmed (and feel naked) because your spouse hid the key to the gun safe.

You buy ivermectin from Chemtrail Charlie.

RELATIONSHIP STATUS

Married. Your spouse is a die-hard Elvis fan too, but stayed home tonight.

BEEN TO EL CAMINO ROYALE BEFORE?

Plenty. You come to Rex's shows just to heckle.

STARTING ROOM

Gambling Floor

Who you know

- Has seen Rex perform many times
- Buys ivermectin from Chemtrail Charlie, their BFF

Costume & Zoom background

Camo, a trucker cap, an "I ♥ the 2nd Amendment" shirt. A shooting-range or gun-shop background.

Keep this pack to yourself until the night. Change your Zoom name to Dakota Calibre when you arrive.

Your clues

You have to reveal all of these by the end of Part 4. Choose when and to whom, and be strategic.

- Last Friday night you left your pearl-handled .38 revolver, "Loretta", on a table in the casino bar. When you went back for it, it was gone. Be careful who you tell, or they might try to take your guns away!
- When the gun went off, you were in the front row heckling Rex, with Chemtrail Charlie next to you.

WHEN THE GUN GOES OFF
Your alibi

Front row, heckling, next to Chemtrail Charlie.

PART 2 · PRE-SHOW DRINKS
Mission 1

Ask Johnny Roundhouse what they think about guns. You know they've never fired one and want gun control. Here's your chance to convince them otherwise, or just argue.

PART 4 · THE INVESTIGATION
Mission 2

Ask your BFF Chemtrail Charlie about their wacky theories, and see if you can pick up some ivermectin while you're there.

Quick rules

- Truths: you can't lie about anything in this pack. You can dodge, but if someone pushes, you have to answer, and only as much as they asked.
- Everything else: lie, improvise and embellish as much as you like.
- "Did you do it?" Anyone can lie about that one.
- Moving rooms: send the hosts a private Zoom chat message with the room you want.
- If your mission names someone who isn't playing tonight, ask anyone else instead.
